The Next Congress.

The political status of the next Congress can now be figured up with tolerable accuracy. Of the seventy-six members composing the Senate, all now chosen, or rather admitted, save three—two from Louisiana and one from South Carolina. Those chosen are divided as follows, if we call Davis, of Illinois, a Republican: Republicans, 40; Democrats, 33. From South Carolina, we have a Republican, Corbin, and a Democrat, Butler, contesting for a vacant seat belonging to that State. Florida's seat is also in contest. From Louisiana we have Kellogg, representing the Packard government; and the politics of the three will depend upon which governments are recognized in those States. If the Republicans lose all three of the doubtful Senators, they will have four majority, and if they gain all three they will have ten majority.

In the House there are 293 seats. Three States furnish double credentials for contested seats, as follows: Florida, 1; South Carolina, 1; Louisiana, 4. If we deduct these six, we have 287 seats which will be filled on prima facie credentials. These will stand: Republicans, 138; Democrats, 149. If the Republican members from the once-called "doubtful" States are admitted, the Democrats will have a majority of but five; and if the Democratic contestants are admitted that majority will be increased to seventeen. It is considered quite certain that a sufficient number of Democrats will be brought over to President Hayes' line of policy to admit of a Republican organization of the House.

The Mennonites do not appreciate the privileges of American citizenship. At a general conference recently held at Elkhart, Indiana, it was resolved that all members of the church who had voted at the late Presidential election should be admonished, and that every minister should try to induce his members to abstain from voting. Previous to 1871 the Mennonites in Southern Russia were exempted from one of the duties of European citizenship—military duty. In that year the privilege was abolished and the immigration movement to the United States set on. They never go to law and they make it a rule never to accept a public office which would render it necessary for them to take an oath. This being the case, it is not strange that American politics offers few attractions to them.

Faith in immortality is the highest tribute that the world has paid to the worth of life.—Emerson.

The thing which an active mind needs is a purpose and direction worthy of its activity.—Boeck.

HURRYING TO THE STORE.—During the last dull season a well-known Main street merchant was observed taking giant steps in the direction of his place of business at seven o'clock in the morning. A rival tradesman, who was assured that large sales was not the motive that induced this rapid transit, hailed the swift "commercial traveler," and interviewed him as follows:

"What's broke loose, Charlie? and where are you going in such a hurry?"
"I'm going to the store."
"Trade must be active with you."
"It's not trade that has called me out."
"It's not a woman, is it?"
"No, of course not. But I'll explain the thing to you to keep down your infernal suspicions. There are three partners in our store and we have only two chairs. The last man that comes in the morning has to stand up all day. It is very important for me to get to the store early this morning—good day."
And Charlie "hit out" like a reporter for a morning newspaper en route for a fire.—Western Retail Grocer.

Senator David Davis, in taking formal leave of his late associates on the Bench of the United States Supreme Court, wrote a pleasant letter bearing testimony to the eminent learning, ability and integrity that have always characterized their judicial labors; and closing with the quite un-Democratic assertion that in his judgment the Supreme Court is now as worthy of the confidence of the American people as it has ever been at any period of its history. It becomes more and more apparent that Judge Davis is not the man he was taken for by the Democrats of the Illinois Legislature.

Wright, the colored Justice of the South Carolina Supreme Court, who signed an order adjudging Hampton Governor of the State, and was then taken in hand by Chamberlain's bulldozers, has at last found a refuge in Washington. He denies in Murtigh's paper that he intended finally to concur in the judgment favoring Hampton, but he does not say what his intention was when he drew two months' salary, dating from the day of Hampton's inauguration, on a check signed by "Wade Hampton, Governor of South Carolina." He drew this money on the 27th of February.

While Mr. Beecher was lecturing in Minnesota recently, a very large and self-possessed gray cat was seen walking deliberately down one of the aisles of the church toward the rostrum. She ascended the steps of the platform, walked up to the lecturer, and very familiarly rubbed herself against his legs, to the great amusement of the audience. Mr. Beecher simply stopped, looked down, and laughingly remarked: "Well, now I am beginning to feel at home."

MONDAY, MARCH 28, 1877

Stocks.

The Rev. L. Hamilton, of Oakland, who is, by the way, one of the most able and unassuming ministers of the coast, lately delivered a lecture upon the above subject. He said:

There were three distinct classes of men engaged in the stock business; the first were of good intentions, who entered the business to make a legitimate living; they would treat a customer as any other business man; they would protect him equally with themselves. The second class was composed of not intentional swindlers; they would do business for a man, whether it was on the road to ruin or not; business was business with them; they would take an order for a man, and at the same time call him an idiot for buying wildcat stock. But the third class was what the speaker bore down on the hardest. The class which was composed of scheming, deliberate swindlers; Men who should be in the penitentiary but often got into Congress; the men who formed "rings" to encircle the dear public's coin; the men who manufactured "pools" wherein to sink the dear public's ready cash; the men who "salted" claims to entice the unwary speculator; the men who declare false dividends (on paper) to enable them to "unload" their overstocked pockets; these were deliberate swindlers, and for them the lecturer had no comfort to offer. He gave an illustration of the modus operandi whereby a mine was declared "good" or "bad;" another how to send stocks "booming" or "flat." He read from statistics of stock transactions, for the last fifteen years to show how many mines paid dividends, how many paid assessments, and how many did neither.

There is very little poetry in these statements, and a vast amount of truth. No man will have the hardihood to doubt one word which is here spoken, and it is time that such warnings shall have their effects, and the business of this coast cease to be dependent on stocks. We do not intend to inveigh against speculation, since that is simply useless. But there are people who have no business in the stock market, upon whom rests the substantial business of our coast, and the prosperity of many other men. We believe that to make stocks depend on their merits is to make the business legitimate. To give them unlimited countenance is to make the market a mere systematized robbery. The public confidence in mines and their management is moderating, and the sooner it reaches reasonable proportions the better. Don't dabble in stocks unless you have money to lose, don't forsake legitimate profits for the chance of sudden wealth.

A Great Enterprise.

The California Fruit and Meat Shipping Company, mention of which we made a day or two since, we regard as the greatest enterprise which has been started of late in the State. The company incorporates with a capital of $500,000, half of which is already subscribed. It is the purpose of the Company to ship and supply the markets east and west, or to any point where there is a demand. The principal place of business will be at San Francisco, but the slaughter houses will be at Reno, Winnemucca and Ogden. The Company propose to buy most of the stock raised on the ranges of the Sierra Nevada, and as most of the stock men of that region will be stockholders in the company, it will be readily seen how the Company can control the market. Orders are already in from European shippers, and it is thought the Company cannot supply the demand. Since the overland railroads have put on refrigerators, meats can be shipped with out the least danger of loss. Fruits of every description will also be shipped by the Company. The old California Fruit Shipping Company have surrendered their organization and gone into this new Company. That the stock in Company will soon be "above par and return liberal dividends, is past conjecture. Several parties in this city have taken stock, and we believe there are others who will subscribe when the advantages of the Company are made known to them.—Nevada Transcript.

This is a question which our farmers should consider. The enterprise promises much aid to our town and interests, and those who are able should labor to identify its interests with those of this section. Reno is spoken of as a prominent depot, and a little wholesome countenance to the movement will ensure that desirable location.

After looking at the picture of a spouting whale for a long time, a little boy seemed to become more and more puzzled. At last he turned to his uncle and, pointing to the picture, said: "Oh, my! doesn't he sneeze a good long way?"

"The Will of the People."

It has transpired since these petitions went to Carson for the passage of the Compromise Bill that they were signed, in nine cases out of ten, under the meanest coercion imaginable. All those who work in and about the bonanza mines and other mines under bonanza control were directly bulldozed into putting down their names. The petitions were placed at the offices of the time keepers, where all the men could see them, and it was talked about in an undertone that those whose names did not appear on them would have but short tenure with the company. Under this pressure the names were strung out to a great length, and this is what the bonanza organ calls the unanimous will of the people, which the Governor had the hardihood to disregard.

When the petition came on C street the same coercion was practiced with business men.—Virginia Footlight.

Any one who knows the system by which Nevada legislation is matured, or the dear people allowed to vote, will not doubt that the practice noted above, and which has been found so efficacious in the past, was the rule under which the Compromise found so much favor. Senator Frank Stewart outlined the dire punishment which awaited honesty upon the Comstock, in his speech against the infamous measure. He included not only business, but social ostracism, under the ban of our generous but indigent Kings. He knew what was meant by opposing these men, and the means which were commonly used in Nevada to quiet such opposition.

That such a state of affairs existed seems to be generally acknowledged, even in Virginia, since direct and pointed assertions like the above meet with no denial or refutation. The Enterprise stands motionless, like the ancient statue of Pasquin, waiting for some owner to hang upon his breast a cartoon or caricature as the case may be. Like the block of marble in question, it has so long been used for ignoble purposes, that the function of a speaking trumpet fills its life. Such an instrument when silent is only brass; when used, it has no will in regard to the sentiments conveyed.

TRAVELING IN STATE.—Senator Sharon, of San Francisco, travels in a private palace car, with two conductors, four brakemen, eight porters, sixteen door keepers, thirty two cooks, and a demijohn of whisky. But he is merely Senator Sharon after all.—Stockton Herald.

Now listen at that. Another unkind thrust at aggregated wealth, and an assault no doubt dictated by a few men who can't reason intelligibly. We are getting tired of these insinuations. Sharon has been uniformly kind, having passed through his constituency three times and worn out two pairs of pants in his seat in Congress, an exhibition of heroism which fills us with awe. Surely this is the very best course which he could have pursued—then why upbraid him.

IRRIGATING CANALS IN KERN COUNTY.—The work on the great West Side Canal is making satisfactory progress. The heavy cutting is all done, and the work consists now in throwing up a levee on the lower side. This levee is of a substantial character, eight or ten feet high, of great width and strength at the base, and three feet wide at the top. A much larger force will be employed now, and more rapid progress made. There are now at work two of the Wanshope ditching-machines, a number of slushers and a great many scrapers. The Wanshopes will now have a better opportunity of displaying their efficiency, as the ground will henceforth be better adapted to their use. Mr. Wible thinks that with ordinary good luck and no drawbacks, he will be able to complete the work to Tulare Lake in sixty days. There are now about four miles of the work complete, and all of the deep cutting is done. The remaining distance of over twenty miles will be comparatively easy of construction. When the great work is finished it will reclaim 70,000 acres of the richest land under the sun. Work on another canal will be commenced this week, starting from near the same point as the draining canal. This will be taken out on this side of the slough, and carried out to irrigate the lands adjacent to the slough. It will be sixty feet wide on the bottom, and will be constructed at present for a distance of about five miles.—Bakersfield Courier-Californian, March 23d.

A coach passing along a country road nearly run over a servant girl, when the coachman cried out, "Take care, Sally!" The girl, without attempting to escape the danger, looked up at the coachman with an air of offended pride, and said: "It isn't Sally, or any such low, vulgar and common stuff—it's Amelia Ann."

The President will not remove U. S. troops at present from Louisiana.

AT THE OLD STAND.—Pat Keliher has sold the Branch Saddle Rock and returned to the Saddle Rock original, next to the International hotel. This change has been made solely because Pat found himself unable to tend to both places with sufficient care. He prides himself upon his close attention to business and the large number of patrons which he has gained thereby. He now asks a continuance of past favors at the Saddle Rock and promises to deserve them more than ever. Old patrons only need to know the location while new comers are referred to the Saddle Rock for trial. Any man who is not satisfied will go free of charge. Pat points with pride to the number of fat men now roaming our streets, and confesses that his famous Eastern oysters and made dinners have done the work. Call at the Saddle Rock and you may be assured of good treatment and the best which the market affords.

FIRE AT HUMBOLDT WELLS.—Saturday afternoon the town of Wells, the new division terminus of the C. P. R. R., was nearly destroyed by fire. The railroad shops were not damaged. Wells has recently been made a division terminus, and the day of the fire the shops and other property of the company had been moved there from Toano.

Geo. L. Whiting who robbed the Brooklyn Bank of $160,000 is now on trial in that city. He is supposed to have given some of the money to a chambermaid in the Van Dyke House.

Secretary Schurz will get up a little advertising bureau of his own. He will have it attached to the Treasury department.

Ex-President Grant goes to Europe about the 10th. Until that time he will bum around and enjoy himself.

"What would you do if mamma should die?" she pathetically asked of her little three-year-old daughter. "I don't know," remarked the infant, with downcast eyes and a melancholy voice, "thopse I should have to thpank myself!"

In this simple fact, that we cannot accurately foresee the future, lies a refuge from despair.—Levin

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

POLICE COURT.—D. P. Bessonet was escorted into Justice R's benign presence this morning to answer to the charge of displaying too much generosity with his poor whisky to "Lo, the poor." D. P. had a face on him that was not at all handsome, and one eye bore unmistakable signs of previous distress. It appears that last night, about ten o'clock, he was behaving himself a little disrespectful on the C. P. R. R. platform. Dan McGovern told him to go away, he refused, and Dan pushed him aside and told him to leave. B. drew his little gun and wanted to be obstreperous, perhaps bluff or shoot, but before he had time to give the doctors or Coroner any business his linear measurement was parallel to sidewalk. When he arose Dan grabbed him, backed him against a box car, and was arranging his face after a new model. Officer Jones came up and took B. over to jail. The Justice thought that the chap had got a pretty fair dose already, and let him off with a fine of $30, $18 of which he paid, promising to pay the remaining $12 in a few days.

M. Morrison was next called on to explain his conduct. Morrison had been coquetting with a couple of dusky maidens. It was night, and a handkerchief was not of as much value as a whisky bottle. He acknowledged the soft impeachment of his moral conduct, and pays his compliments for 12 days to Sheriff Lamb.

USEFUL AND ORNAMENTAL.—Sheriff Lamb has taken it into his head that the Court House yard should present an attractive and pleasing appearance to the public. He has accordingly a donation of 180 currant and 175 blackberry bushes from Mrs. Norcross and had them set out on the south and west sides of the Court House yard. 175 gooseberry bushes will be planted on the north side. Mrs. A. J. Hatch has given Mr. Lamb a number of currant and gooseberry bushes, and Mrs. Robert Frazier and Mrs. G. W. Huffaker intend giving him a number of all these bushes planted, and they flower out, the Court yard will be quite an attractive and pleasant place. Lamb says donations from other ladies are in order.

FIRE—DELAYED TRAINS.—Saturday night about 11 o'clock, the snowsheds at Yuba Pass, between Emigrant Gap and Cisco, caught on fire, probably from a passing locomotive. The fire was not discovered until the East bound passenger train came rattling along on its eastward journey. Word was passed along the line, and fire trains from East and west came at once to the scene of conflagration. After some twelve or fifteen hours hard work the fire was put out and the track cleared. The lightning express arrived here about half-five last evening, and the overland an hour later, the first train being detained 11½ hours, the latter 15½ hours. The fire burned about 1,000 feet of shedding, and 1,000 cords of wood.

BLUE GLASS.—We were presented to-day with a bit of blue glass which we carried home to experiment upon. Happening to lay the cure all upon an old copy of the Enterprise a strange transformation took place. The epithets all melted away and of course left nothing on the editorial page; but in place of those heroic tirades appeared the $ sign and the word "instructed" written all over the paper in a bold, legal hand. Strange, wasn't it?

COMPLAINT.—We hear complaint that drunken Indians are very plentiful about Verdi. The offenders will do well to look out for themselves as the peace officers in that burg will not hesitate to administer the full penalties.

ASSESSMENT LEVIED.—The North Truckee Ditch Co. have levied a further assessment of twenty cents, finding that the original levy was insufficient to complete the necessary repairs.

GUITAR AND BANJO.—C. E. Barnes publishes himself in to-day's issue as a teacher of guitar and banjo. Those in need of such services will find Barnes a master of the instruments mentioned.

Good Havana Cigars. two for 25 cents at E. Meyer's New Cigar Store.

Peavine Mines.

Yesterday in company with Messrs. Shoemaker, Brown, Lippman, Ruhe and Griffin we visited a number of the Peavine mines. The first mine inspected was the PAYMASTER.

Donning a quantity of old clothes the party proceeded down the 380 foot incline. As the greater portion of the incline runs at an angle of 45 degrees, we all were patrons of the rows of mining timbers which protect the incline. Shoemaker had on a pair of high top gum boots and therefore felt that he was the man to follow Capt. Griffin, whose only foot protection was a good pair of number 12 leather boots. At the foot of the incline we struck the 150 foot level, which runs north and south from the main shaft. From this level a drift has been run out to the hanging wall. Messrs. Griffin and Shoemaker crawled through a narrow aperture and waded through eight or ten inches of water to see the well-defined wall. Shoemaker came back, gum boots in hand, declaring that he preferred exposing his feet directly to bonanza water than having the precious liquid filtered through a dilapidated pair of gum boots. We prowled around under ground awhile, saw an abundance of good ore, and then returned to the main shaft and thence to the surface. The 380 foot incline follows the vein, which dips to the west. We got some specimens from the face of the vein which show that as it is followed down the quartz is much better and the ore gives a little better average assays. Captain Griffin the foreman is just the man for that position. Give him capital and the Paymaster will soon be yielding handsome returns. At present the company are only keeping the water out of the mine. They await the result of the present assessment.

GOLDEN FLEECE.

This claim is 1½ miles southwest of Pooville. The company are pushing forward a 950 foot tunnel, and within the last few days have struck an excellent quality of ore and in large quantities. North of the tunnel 490 feet a 112 foot air shaft intersects the tunnel. The owners of this mine are much pleased over the present developments, and intend to continue work on the mine up to the full extent of their means.

THE DIFFICULTY.

In working the ores of these mines arises from the quantity of base metal found in them. The ore is so rich, however, that this obstacle can be easily overcome. The average ore taken from the Paymaster assays $126 per ton. The Consolidated Poe Company have been embarrassed financially by mismanagement. Their new hoisting works cost them in construction and experiments from $20,000 to $40,000. Provided they can raise money to prosecute the work, there is no question but that the yield from these mines will give large revenues to the stockholders. There is a large amount of valuable ore there, and capital will alone extract it and make it of use to anyone. We believe that any man is making a profitable investment when he buys stock in either the Con. Poe or Golden Fleece.

E. Meyer makes a specialty of Bit Cigars. Those who have tried them smoke them again.

FRUIT AND MEAT SHIPPING COMPANY.—Through the kindness of T. W. Norcross we were to-day shown the circulars which are now going the rounds and seeking subscribers to this enterprise. The agreement shown us had subscriptions to the amount of $130,000, and nineteen of the principal subscribers were from Reno and vicinity. The meeting for final incorporation will be held on April 11th, and the company hope to commence operations by the middle of May. We hope that other subscribers may be found in and about our town.

For a genuine imported Havana Cigar go to E. Meyer in J. E. Jones & Co.'s old Bank.

SOCIALS.—We are requested to announce that the Masonic socials, which have been so successful and enjoyable, have been discontinued owing to the approach of warm weather. Attendants are requested to inform their friends of this fact that misunderstanding may be avoided.

Brice's new photograph gallery is now open. Go and see him, on the north side of the railroad track, opposite the Postoffice, Reno, Nev. [36-37]

Jottings.

The new photograph gallery is on the north side of the railroad, opposite the Postoffice.

Freighting seems to be quite lively about town.

The young daughter of Mr. Fitzgerald was baptised last evening at the Baptist Church.

The Masons have concluded not to give any more socials. There will consequently be no soiree at Masonic Hall next Wednesday evening. These socials were very enjoyable and quite successful.

Manning & Duck have just received a large quantity of hardware and other goods.

Chas. Jones sold the effects of the Branch Saddle Rock restaurant this afternoon. A crowd was in attendance and each man went off with a cup and saucer or a few spoons.

The hunters were out in force yesterday, it being the last Sunday for lawful duck shooting for several months.

The lightning train slid into town in fine style this morning.

Stocks are convalescent to-day.

Cookes' second story is taking on the finishing touches.

A friend left us yesterday a generous sample of fine Honey Lake apples. Don't do so any more.

Sheriff Lamb went to Pyramid to-day.

Amity Lodge K. of P. are talking strongly of a uniform ball to come off about April 10th.

J. E. Jones returned from Pyramid to-day, and reports all serene. The Pyramid Company is now drifting for the ledge on the 180 foot level.

Kennedy, of Carson, better known as the Judge, was in town yesterday.

The case of Jno. Galligher will be tried this evening before Justice R. Galligher is charged with having stolen a horse from Mr. Lee.

NATIVE ELOQUENCE.—This morning an aged Indian whose head was gray and whose form told of many days spent under the hardships so common to his race, occupied the sidewalk in front of Morris Ash's and harrangued about thirty of his tribe upon the evils of drink. Quite a number of white men looked on but could understand nothing save the word whisky, often spoken and each time with a frown. He was evidently an entertaining speaker, for his people all listened attentively and not one offered to leave the spot. The orator says in conversation that drinking is going too far among his people and that a chief of the tribe will soon put in an appearance to check the evil. We hope that the speaker's crusade may prove a veritable saviour among his blacksliding people. A temperance lecture from the red man, however, is something new.

SIGNIFICANT.—It is creditable to those who own mines in the new district at Pyramid, that they do not wish any fuss made over their claims. They invariably ask that comment be deferred until they test the matter by honest work. They do not want any visitors, but believing that their mines are valuable, propose to give time and money to their development.

CORRECTION.—We are glad to state that we were wrong in giving Nels Barrett as the man injured at Mackey & Fair's mill on Saturday last. It was Ed. Barrett, we believe, who was only slightly hurt.

AUCTION.—"Henry," who can do anything from crying the town to riding a bucking horse, was out to-day with his bell and cried himself hoarse with telling of chances for golden fortunes, etc., etc. There was an auction at the Branch Saddle Rock.

Odds and Ends.

A young woman being asked by a politician which party she was most in favor of, replied that she preferred a wedding party.

When proposing to a widow, the question whether her first husband is dead or divorced should be put as delicately as possible.

He was a well-meaning man, but they had been married a long while, and, while he playfully asked her what was next to nothing, she sarcastically answered that, at this season of the year, she thought his winter flannels were.

"You ain't afraid to die?" said a clergyman tenderly. "No," replied the sufferer; "I am only afraid, if I do, that the old woman will go shooting among my private papers the first thing."

"Bless you," said John Henry, with tears in his eyes, "she takes her hair off so easy that perhaps she doesn't know it hurts to have mine pulled out."

Blue eyes with a few tears in them sometimes cures a man of the habit of staying out late nights—and then again sometimes they don't.

A country newspaper, in an obituary notice of a subscriber's son, says: "He was an uncommon smart boy. He had a little too much curiosity, perhaps, or he wouldn't have peeped into the muzzle of his father's shot gun."

Landlady (to boarder who has passed his cup six times)—"You are very fond of coffee, Mr. Smith." Mr. Smith—"Yes, ma'am, it looks as if I was, when I am willing to swallow so much water for the sake of getting a little."

Two acquaintances met on a wet day, one greeted the other with, "Beautiful rain, this! fetch things out of the ground!" Second friend (disconsolately)—"Hope not, sir—hope not; got two wives there, sir!"

A blue glass chimney on the parlor lamp will bring a young man up to the point of proposing to a cross-eyed maiden with store teeth, in three Sunday evenings.

Terribly sarcastic father: "Now I must bid you good night, Mr. John, for I have an engagement. But say, why don't you stop and take breakfast with us some morning; you always go away an hour or two before it is ready."

"Before we were married," said he to a friend, "she used to say 'by-bye' so sweetly when I went down the steps." "And now what does she say?" asked the friend. "O, just the same," explained the man—"buy, buy!"

He was sitting silently by her side one chilly evening last Autumn, thinking of something to say. Finally he remarked: "How sad it is; the frost has come, and it will kill everything green." Thereupon the young lady extended her hand and said in a sympathetic tone, "Good-bye."

It is sad to reflect that the young woman who was last New Year's presenting her Charles with a velvet pin cushion, because he "swore off," may a year hence be engaged in putting a yellow patch on the basement of his gray pants. And yet, such is life.

I think it best not to dispute where there is no probability of convincing.—Whitfield.

Sheriff's Sale.

BY VIRTUE of an interlocutory decree and judgment rendered April 16th, 1875, by the District Court of the Second Judicial District of the State of Nevada, held in and for the county of Washoe, and now affirmed by the Supreme Court of said State, and by virtue of a certified copy of said decree and judgment delivered on the 13th day of March, A. D. 1877, and under and by virtue of a deed to me executed and delivered, of the premises hereinafter described, by several parties to said decree, which said decree was rendered in a certain suit pending in said court entitled Court, wherein B. F. Rhodes is plaintiff and James A. Williams and Maria Williams, his wife, are defendants, and by which said decree the Sheriff of Washoe county is made a Receiver, and directed, as Sheriff and Receiver, to sell at public auction, in view of the premises, for cash, such premises, by absolute sale without redemption and on payment of the purchase money to me to execute an absolute deed of said premises to such purchaser or purchasers thereof, and place such purchaser or purchasers in immediate possession of said premises, and remove all persons therefrom claiming said premises under all or any of the parties to said decree, and now, therefore:

Notice is hereby given that on the SEVENTH DAY OF APRIL, A. D. 1877, at West street, in front of the said premises and west thereof, in the town of Reno, county of Washoe, and State of Nevada, between the hours of 9 o'clock in the forenoon and 5 o'clock in the afternoon, viz: at 1 o'clock in the afternoon of said day of April, A. D. 1877, I will sell at public auction to the highest and best bidder for cash, in accordance with said decree, all that certain piece or parcel of land situate in the town of Reno, county of Washoe, and State of Nevada, together with the furniture, fixtures, and appurtenances thereof known and described on the map and survey of the town of Reno, county of Washoe and State of Nevada, as the north half of lot 4 (Four) and all of lot 5 (Five) in Block N, in said town of Reno, as surveyed and platted on the map of said town as laid out for Charles Crocker in 1868, and on the payment of the purchase price thereof by the purchaser or purchasers thereof, I, as Sheriff of Washoe county, and as Receiver appointed by said decree and as grantee of the premises by deed from all the parties to said suit, will make, acknowledge and deliver to such purchaser or purchasers, a good and sufficient deed of said premises, conveying all the interest and estate of the partnership of Williams and Rhodes, and also of said defendants James A. Williams and Maria Williams, his wife, and all the equities of said copartnership and defendants and each of them and of any person or persons who may have obtained rights or claims to said premises since the filing of the pendency of the aforesaid action on the 30th day of December, 1873, and thereupon place such purchaser or purchasers in immediate possession of said premises, removing therefrom the defendants and any and all persons claiming by, through or under them or either of them, by title or agreement made subsequent to the 30th day of December, A. D. 1873.

Given under my hand this 14th day of March, A. D. 1877.

A. K. LAMB, Sheriff.
